submitted in the application/motion reflects that Donald Willis receives $2700 a month in unidentified retirement income. Courts consider social security payments in making the in-forma-pauperis determination.² Willis lists one dependant. The applicable poverty guideline for a family of two is $15,510.³ At $2700 a month, Plaintiff's total annual retirement income is $32,400, far above the poverty level. The information in this application shows that Willis has sufficient resources available to pay the filing and administrative fees. Thus, after review and consideration of the applications/motions to proceed in forma pauperis filed by Donald Willis, the undersigned finds the motions to proceed IFP should be denied, and will make such a recommendation.

RECOMMENDATION

It is therefore RECOMMENDED that Donald D. Willis's motions/applications to proceed in forma pauperis [docket nos. 2 and 9] be DENIED by the district judge.
